

Certificate in Digital Communication

The graduate certificate in Digital Communication benefits students looking to further their growth in fields such as digital communication theory, digital analysis, digital design and production, and digital communication law and ethics.

Click on the course number to view course title and description.

Code	Title	Semester Hours
The certificate program consists of four (4) courses, for a total of 12 credit hours.
Required courses:
CM 7301 or CM 7313	Visual Communication Design Video Design and Production	3
CM 7302 or CM 7303	Applied Digital Communication Digital Communication Analysis	3
CM 9324	Communications Law and Ethics	3
One elective from the following:		3
CM 7303 or CM 7302	Digital Communication Analysis Applied Digital Communication
CM 7305	Photojournalism
CM 7311	Media Script Writing
CM 7313 or CM 7301	Video Design and Production Visual Communication Design
CM 7332	Public Relations Writing and Campaigns
CM 7347	Technical Writing
CM 8321
CM 9321	Film Theory and Criticism
CM 9323
Total Semester Hours		12