

Graduate Certificate for Dual Credit Teaching in English

The Graduate Certificate in English Literature and Language is a fully online cohort program, which provides the opportunity to complete the graduate courses necessary to be credentialed for teaching dual credit courses. For college-level academic courses, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) requires a master's degree or doctoral degree with 18 graduate hours in the discipline being taught. Students, who already have a master's degree in another area, can complete this 18-hour requirement in English through the Certificate. Students, who have not yet earned a master's degree, can apply their completed 18 credit hours toward a Master of Arts in English Literature and Language from St. Mary's University.

Code	Title	Semester Hours
Courses required for a Certificate
Grammar - select one course from the following:		3
EN 7335	History of the English Language
EN 7343	Linguistics: Voice and Text
EN 7345	Rhetorical Grammar
American Literature - select one course from the following:		3
EN 7310	Early American Literature
EN 7313	Realism and Naturalism in the American Novel
EN 7316	History of the American Novel
EN 7317	The American Novel: Multicultural Literature
EN 7319	Women of Color: Writing as Memoir and Resistance
International Literature - select one course from the following:		3
EN 7314	International Literature
EN 7318	Nineteenth Century British Literature
EN 7321	Shakespeare's Major Plays
Digital Humanities - select one course from the following:		3
EN 7315	Digital Humanities with American Literature Focus
EN 7336	Introduction to the Digital Humanities
Literary Theory - select one course from the following:		3
EN 7300	Narrative Theory
EN 7301	Contemporary Literary Criticism
EN 7311	Modernism and Postmodernism
Pedagogical Development - select one from the following:		3
EN 7330	Writing to Change the World
EN 7331	Writing Assessment
EN 7337	Approaches to Teaching Multi-Ethnic Literature
EN 7342	Transformational Writing
EN 7344	Approaches to Teaching Writing & Critical Thinking
Total Semester Hours		18