

Academic Catalog

2024-2025 Edition

The St. Mary's University Academic Catalog is the comprehensive single source of University-wide information related to academic programs, course descriptions, degree programs, and policies that govern progress towards completion of a degree. On many subjects, more detailed information is available from school and department webpages for various programs and services. Students should seek information from these sources as needed.